

Please do not allow big business to influence your decisions. The current no call list is in the interest of all citizens of the state. As a consumer, I refuse to donate or buy anything that is solicited over the phone. There are other ways for businesses and other organizations to get my attention and sell their services and products.